The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://secure.utah.gov/stormwater-admin>. The page header includes "Utah.gov Secured", "A SECURE ONLINE SERVICE FROM UTAH.GOV", and navigation links for "Subscribers", "FAQs", "Support", and "Font Size: A A A". The main heading is "STORM WATER PERMIT ISSUANCE SYSTEM" with the subtitle "UTAH DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY - DIVISION OF WATER QUALITY". Below this, a welcome message reads: "Welcome to the DEQ - Division of Water Quality's Administration and Municipality Application".

Two blue callout boxes with arrows provide instructions:

- The first box points to the login form and contains the text: "Login using your previously created username and password. If you have not created your login credentials, click the 'create an account' and follow the steps to create an account."
- The second box points to the links below the login form and contains the text: "These links will allow you to create an account or recover your username and/or password in the event you've already created an account and forgotten your login credentials."

The login form on the right is titled "Login with your Utah.gov Account" and includes the following fields and links:

- Username: A text input field containing "Login123".
- Password: A password input field with masked characters "**".
- Login: A blue button.

The screenshot shows the 'Division of Water Quality - Stormwater Admin' interface. The page displays permit details for a 'Municipal Separate Storm Sewer System (MS4)'. The form includes fields for 'Operator Name', 'Receiving Water Body', 'Estimate of distance to the nearest water body', 'List the number of any other UPDES permits at this site', 'Construction types' (Residential, Road, Utility, Contouring, Landscaping), and 'Best Management Practices' (Check Dams, Other, Inlet protection, construction entrance). At the bottom of the page, there are three buttons: 'Edit', 'Terminate', and 'View a printable version of NOI application'. A 'Change History' table is also visible, with columns for 'Field Name', 'Changed From', and 'Changed To'. The footer contains links to 'Utah.gov Home', 'Utah.gov Terms of Use', 'Utah.gov Privacy Policy', and 'Utah.gov Copyright © 2012 State of Utah - All rights reserved'.

At the bottom of the page, you will have management options available.

The “Edit” button allows you to edit information associated with the filed permit.

“Terminate” allows you to confirm termination.

If needed, a new copy of the NOI document can be downloaded here.
